

Celebrating Our FRENCH HERITAGE at St. Edward's

Everyone is invited to celebrate the university's Holy Cross founders and our French heritage at the following free campus events.

SUNDAY, OCT. 4

Founder's Week Mass • 10:30 a.m. and 9 p.m.

Our Lady Queen of Peace Chapel (Reception to follow at Mang House)

MONDAY, OCT. 5

Presentation on French Culture and Language • 2–3:15 p.m. and 3:30–4:45 p.m.

Learn more about the French culture and language from special guests Cultural Attaché Dominic Chastres and Deputy Cultural Attaché Marie Maurannes of the Consulate General of France in Houston
Mabee Ballrooms A and B, Ragsdale Center

Cinema Français Today: A Program of Short Films • 7–8:30 p.m.

Enjoy six short films by French directors followed by a Q&A session with our guests from the Consulate General of France in Houston (subtitles in English)

Jones Auditorium, Ragsdale Center

"Images of Our French Heritage" • All Day

See images of our French heritage courtesy of Professor Joe Vitone's photography

Jones Auditorium Lobby, Ragsdale Center

TUESDAY, OCT. 6

"The French Connection" • 7:30–9:30 p.m.

An evening of French music presented by the St. Edward's University Symphony Orchestra

Maloney Room, Main Building

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 7

French Cabaret • noon–1 p.m.

A celebration of French food and music, with music by Christine Albert, Texas Chanteuse

Main Building Plaza

Post-Graduate Service Fair • 4–7 p.m.

Live the Holy Cross and St. Edward's heritage after graduation. Meet with representatives from 20 national and international post-graduate service programs

Mabee Ballrooms A and B, Ragsdale Center

"They Killed Sister Dorothy" • 6–8 p.m.

Award-winning documentary about a Catholic nun and activist who was killed in the Brazilian Amazon; discussion to follow with university provost and executive vice president Sister Donna Jurick, SND

Jones Auditorium, Ragsdale Center

FRIDAY, OCT. 9

Founder's Week Service Project • 8 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

Sponsored by Student Service Council; breakfast and T-shirt included

Mabee Ballroom, Ragsdale Center