

La Cultura es Vida

HISPANIC
HERITAGE MONTH
2008

culture is life

SEPTEMBER

Diez y Seis de Septiembre Celebration

11:45 a.m.–1p.m. • Ragsdale Plaza
(Rain Location: Mabee Ballroom)

Celebrate Mexico's Independence Day at the kickoff celebration for Hispanic Heritage Month. Enjoy free food from Nueva Onda while listening to music from Mariachi Relámpago.

Tuesday
16

Latin Poetry Lounge

7 p.m. • Meadow's Coffeehouse

Enjoy readings from powerful voices of Latin poets. All members of the university community who would like to read excerpts from poetry or share individually composed works should send samples to maribelt@stedwards.edu by Friday, Sept. 19.

Thursday
25

Bilingual Mass

9 p.m. • Our Lady Queen of Peace Chapel

Celebrate the Holy Eucharist with a special bilingual Mass in recognition of the Catholic Church's influence on the history, politics, culture and economics of the Americas.

Sunday
28

OCTOBER

Tianguis Market

11 a.m.–2 p.m. • Ragsdale Center Lawn
(Rain Location: Moody Hall Atrium)

Tianguis (Nahuatl for "market") is a fundamental institution in most Hispanic societies and a cultural structure in Mexico — a place for commercial and cultural exchange. Experience the flavor of a traditional Tianguis while sampling the wares of local Austin vendors.

Thursday
2

Info: 448-8422. Sponsored by Student Life and the Hispanic Heritage Committee. For individuals with disabilities who may require special accommodations, please contact Student Life at 512-448-8422 no later than four days before the event so that proper consideration may be given to the request.

ST. EDWARD'S
UNIVERSITY
AUSTIN